Technical View – NIFTY (25,665.60)

NIFTY [N59901] 25665.60, -0.26%

Price Avg(E,20) Avg(E,50)

Observations

- This Wednesday, NIFTY50 began trading at 25,648.55, reaching for a high of 25,791.75. The index ceased trading for the day at 25,665.60, losing 0.26% in the process. A jump in trading volume was noted as participation moved from 339.54M to 393.13M signalling strong conviction amongst sellers. NIFTY extended their losses for another session as weakness in IT sector and relentless exit of FIIs from the market hit the index hard. ASIANPAINTS appeared as the top loser as crude oil prices ramp up, negatively affecting industries dependent on the same.
- NIFTY50 has formed a small bodied bullish candle with a lower shadow and a longer upper shadow indicating selling pressure at higher levels. In yet another session, the index fails to cross the 20, 50-day EMA and the Middle Bollinger Band from below it. Despite the portrayal of a green candle on the daily charts, both the momentum indicators worsen. MACD histogram has further weekend to -58.22 with the MACD Line trading well below the Signal and Zero line. RSI has fallen to 39.26 as a bullish crossover is yet to take place. Overall, the indicators suggest that weakness persists in the market with the index continuing to consolidate in the near term.
- Looking at the levels, it appears that 25947 is performing as a significant resistance level for the Nifty. On the higher side, though, 25781/25803/25875 levels will act as a resistance area for the NIFTY. If we look at the lower side, support is located at 25593/25571/25499 and 25428 levels.

Technical View – BANK NIFTY (59,580.15)

BANKNIFTY [N59906] 59580.15, 0.00%
 Price Avg(E,20) Avg(E,50)

Observations

- On the 14th, BANKNIFTY opened at 59,330.35, forming a high and a low of 59,796.65 and 59,324.20 respectively while the index ended flat to close trading activity at 59,580.15. Huge leap in volume was observed from 224.17M to 341.46M implying rising investor interest. UNIONBANK led the pack of gainers as its shares jump after the release of Q3FY26 results depicting increased net profits and easing bad loans whereas both the top two weighted constituents, HDFCBANK and ICICIBANK were included in the top 5 losers.
- BANKNIFTY represents a bullish candle with a minor lower shadow and a lengthy upper shadow. The index continues to position itself above the 20,50,100 and 200-day EMAs as well as the Middle Bollinger Band. MACD histogram has expanded further into the negative territory with the MACD line unable to move past the Signal line. RSI has only slightly improved to 53.55 with the Signal line still moving above the RSI. In conclusion, despite the index witnessing selling pressure at higher levels, the continuation of higher-high higher-low structure and the price trading above the key EMAs and middle Bollinger Band support a positive setup in short-term, but momentum indicators are giving mixed signals warranting caution.
- Collectively, these factors reinforce a constructive outlook for the index in the near term. Looking at the levels, it appears that 59803 is performing as a significant resistance level for the Nifty. On the higher side, though, 59859/60039/60220 levels will act as a resistance area for the NIFTY. If we look at the lower side, support is located at 59331/59275/59095 and 58914 levels.
