Sectoral trend remained largely positive while the Nifty IT and Metal sector emerging as the best sectoral performers as the market breadth was in the favour of the bulls. The benchmark index staged a sharp rebound the day after expiry after FIIs acted as buyers in Tuesday's session, the strong IIP data and also renewed optimism in IT stocks uplifted the market sentiment despite a jump in crude oil prices.

- On the daily timeframe, NIFTY50 observed a massive upward breakout as it formed a bullish candlestick with shadows on both ends far higher than the previous candle while the price now trades above the 20,50 and 100-day EMAs as it remained only under the longer 200-day EMA. The RSI line rose significantly and portrayed a bullish crossover as the line now at 56.11 is trending superior to the reference line. In conclusion, the momentum indicators and the price action together indicate strengthening bullish momentum as the positive outlook gathers support.

- Technically, looking at the key levels, resistance is placed at 24297/24314/24370 area while a sustained move above it could lead the price for an upside to further test the 24426 level. On the downside, 24150/24133/24077 are expected to act as support levels with 24021 providing a deeper support for the NIFTY index.
